

School of American Law
Jagiellonian University

ANNE LAUBER-RÖNSBERG, LL.M. (EDINBURGH)

Intellectual Property in Human Genes

The Interface between Patent Law and Personality Rights

Venue: Cracow, ul. Bracka 12, room 200

Time: Thursday, 19 March 2009, 3:00 PM

ANNE LAUBER-RÖNSBERG studied law in Germany (Passau and Heidelberg), Switzerland (Lausanne) and UK (Edinburgh). Legal traineeship (Referendariat) in Berlin. Since 2003 Lecturer at the Institute for Intellectual Property, Competition and Media Law of the University of Dresden. Since 2008 substitute member of the Ethics Commission of the Dresden Faculty of Medicine. The presentation will focus on European law but also draw comparisons to the American system.

Contact: School of American Law, Faculty of Law and Administration, Jagiellonian University, ul. Bracka 12/205, 31-005 Cracow, Poland, okspo at uj.edu.pl, tel/fax +48 12 422 09 08, blog: <http://amerykanska.wordpress.com>.